

LETTERS TO SANTA EVENT

Deadline for Mailing Saturday, May 1

Writing letters to Santa has been a rite of passage since the late 1800s. Remember the letters you wrote to Santa as a child each year in hopes of winning the jolly elf over, convincing him you were worthy of the gifts for which you asked? Remember that one elusive toy or ornament you always wanted as a child, but never received?

What if you could write one more letter to Santa asking him for your heart's desire, Would you do it? What would you ask for? Are you on the Naughty List? Or the Nice List?

It's time to write your letter! Five lucky Convention attendees will have their letters read by Santa himself at one of the Convention's banquets and you might just get what you asked for! Someone will be chosen, why not you?

All Letters to Santa must be handwritten and postmarked by May 1 and sent via USPS to Santa Claus at his summer home.

HOW TO ENTER:

- * Search your memories for things you wrote to Santa and asked for when you were a child but didn't receive

- * Hand-write a letter asking Santa to reconsider.
  - * Tell him how you have been nice and why you deserve them
  - * Christmas stationery is a plus, but not a must
  - * Santa would like to know why you love the Glow
  - * Sign and date your letter
- * Your letter must be mailed via the USPS to Santa's summer home:

Santa Claus
