For the Love of Cookies...

Homemade cookies and sweets are a Glow Convention tradition. Bring them to share in the Hospitality Room, or enter them in the Cookie Contest for a little friendly competition!

Cookie Contest Chair Kelly Ryan shares some answers to frequently asked cookie questions

* Why a dozen?

We ask for a dozen cookies in each entry because: (1) There are eight judges. (2) A dozen shows you can make a consistent cookie time after time.

* How do you keep it fair?

All cookies are blind-judged. We do not know who baked each entry until after the final numbers have been tallied.

* What are cookies judged on?

Cookies are judged in four categories, each worth 1-5 points:

Christmas Appeal Does it look like a Christmas cookie? In other words, something special.

Appearance and Freshness Uniform size, freshness, no burned edges.

Texture/Mouth Feel Is it dry?
Are the ingredients fresh?

Overall Taste Is it a good cookie?
Are the ingredients well-balanced?

If two entries tie in points, the decision comes down to who scored higher in Overall Taste.
