

The Golden Glow of Christmas Past™ (GGCP™) Convention Sales Room Policy

The GGCP™ Convention Sales Room (SR) Policy outlines responsibilities and conduct required of a Seller, Assistant and the Vetting Committee. All parties must adhere to the following requirements to sell, vet, and resolve any concerns during the SR event. Thank you for honoring this policy.

1. Only the Seller and one (1) designated Assistant are permitted to sell. Both must be GGCP™ members, registered for the convention, and wearing convention badges during SR schedule.
2. Seller will receive the set-up/vetting/sale schedule prior to the convention which Seller must follow.
3. After setup and vetting have been completed, the final 30 minutes prior to the Sales Room doors opening to the general membership will be reserved for Seller buying/selling. Buying/selling prior to the last 30 minutes will not be permitted.
4. The Vetting Committee will consist of at least three (3) GGCP™ members selected by the SR Chair and they must wear Vetting Committee badges.
5. Items offered for sale must fit into at least one (1) of the following categories and be made or manufactured in compliance with the rolling 40-year rule in the GGCP™ Bylaws.
 - Only Christmas-related items (No other holidays permitted).
 - Toys, books, or games that would be used at Christmas.
 - Patriotic items that would be used as Christmas decorations.
 - Candy containers with Christmas-related themes only.
 - Putz/Christmas Garden items.
 - Books, publications, or articles containing Christmas info pertaining to the rolling 40-year rule in the GGCP™ Bylaws.
6. In accordance with the GGCP™ Code of Ethics, all items must display visible price tags and be labeled to disclose any repairs, alterations or being sold “as is.”
7. The Vetting Committee and Seller/Assistant must conduct themselves in a polite, respectful manner, and act within the guidelines of the GGCP™ Code of Ethics. If the Vetting Committee identifies an item not adhering to the requirements in #5, the Committee will remove it from the sale. An item not adhering to #6 must be corrected to remain in the sale.
8. The Seller has the right to discuss the concerns(s) with the Committee to resolve the concern(s).
9. The final decision to remove or keep the item(s) in question in the sale will be determined by a majority vote of the Vetting Committee.
10. Any item identified as not fitting into the categories outlined in #5, must be placed out of sight (not available for sale) by the Seller and/or Assistant, for the duration of the SR event.
11. Refusal to honor any of these rules will be due cause to be barred from selling in future Convention Sales Rooms. Re-entry will be determined by a majority vote of the Board of Directors

I have read the above and agree to follow the Sales Room Policy for the Golden Glow of Christmas Past™ Convention and to operate under the organization’s Code of Ethics,
