

The Golden Glow Chorale

A Cappella Choir

GOLDEN GLOW CHORALE formation is underway to perform at the Friday Luncheon and Saturday Evening Banquet. In addition, it is tradition that the Saturday evening banquet ends with the Singing of "Silent Night," lead by our Glow Chorale Group. This is an a cappella choir that sings four part harmony.

Our Musical Director is John Wernega. John is the Music Arranger for the Fralinger String Band, that has received First Prize in the Mummers Parade in Philadelphia for numerous years. He is also an instrumental/choral teacher in a public elementary/middle school and took one of his student ensembles to sing for about 7,000 viewers at the barbershop convention in Nashville in Summer 2016.

Please consider joining The Golden Glow Chorale by checking the box on page III of the Convention Registration under Golden Glow Chorale in the upper right of the page (highlighted below).

Or you can email John Wernega at thelonearranger1@comcast.net

Selections from "White Christmas" and Doris Day are scheduled to be performed at the Cincinnati Convention.
