

For the Love of Cookies...

Homemade cookies and sweets are a Glow Convention tradition. Bring them to share in the Hospitality Room, or enter them in the Cookie Contest for a little friendly competition.

Cookie Contest Chair Doreen Tango Hampton shares some exciting news!

2020 GLOW PITTSBURGH CONVENTION Christmas Cookie Contest

I F YOU HAVE attended conventions in the past, you know about the excitement (and deliciousness) generated by the Christmas Cookie Contest. So wipe off those recipe cards, search through those treasured cookbooks, or download your online favorites, because we have a few surprises in store for the winners.

Our convention hosts are shaking things up a bit this year. There are seven BRAND NEW categories in which to enter your creations (listed at right).

Cookies will be judged on appearance, freshness, texture/mouth feel, and overall taste. Bakers can enter more than one cookie, but not in the same category. There will be a first and second place winner chosen in each category. All winners will be announced at Thursday evening's banquet.

At the hotel, entry packets containing instructions, plates and sealed bags can be picked up at the Convention Registration Desk beginning Monday, July 20.

NEW! this year!

ALL NEW COOKIE CONTEST CATEGORIES

- * Italian
- * Polish
- * German
- * Czech/Russian
- * American
