

This laid back and leisurely cruise presented by the Chicago Architecture Foundation was voted #1 by Conde Nast, the most polished operation in town. Cruising down the Chicago River and various branches, takes you on a breathtaking tour where you will view many of Chicago's most famous buildings. Find a comfy seat and settle in as an expert architectural guide gives an introduction to Chicago's architectural history. Pass by more than 40 distinctive buildings, including the Willis (Sears) Tower, Old Post Office, 360 Chicago Observation Deck, the Wrigley Building, the Lyric Opera House and more. You'll learn which buildings' famous architects Mies van der Rohe, Helmut Jahn, Skidmore, Owings, and Merrill designed. Plenty of photo opportunities. This tour is not to be missed! Pro tip: Head straight upstairs when you board, snag a seat in the rear for optimal views.
