

WHAT IS BLACK TIE & BOOTS?

Black Tie & Boots is a quadrennial event in Washington DC. Sponsored by the Texas State Society of Washington D.C., it is especially festive when a Texan is inaugurated into the White House! Think LBJ and Bush #41 & #43!

What is Black Tie & Boots at “A Lonestar Christmas”? Whatever you want it to be!

Dress like you are from Dallas – formal attire, tuxedo and – of course – boots!

Dress like you are from Ft. Worth – a tuxedo jacket and bow tie, blue jeans, humongous belt buckle and – but, of course – boots!

From a mid-size Texas town? Sport coat, tie optional, blue jeans and – you got it, finally – boots!

Dress like you are from a small Texas town – black t-shirt with tuxedo image, blue jeans and boots.

No boots? No worries! Wear tennis shoes (rattier the better) and you will fit right in – and if you want to dress like you are from Austin? Flip flops work too!
