Do you have any blow molds in your collection? Have you ever wanted to know a little more about these glowing plastic icons of Christmas? Since the early 1960s, these tacky, kitschy, wonderful plastic characters have been lighting up front lawns and in living rooms across the country.

Join veteran collector, Carrie Sansing, for a delightful holiday luncheon where she will share some blow mold history, what they are, how they are made, and some tips and tricks for displaying them.
